Order (Oral)

By Hon'ble Mr. Shankar Raju, Member (J)

In view of the G.M. North West Railway Vs. Chanda Devi 2007 (14) Scale 296, a casual worker who has not been regularized, the legal heirs is neither entitled for pension nor legal heirs is entitled for family pension. Accordingly, the claim of compassionate appointment cannot be considered for such a person, as legal heirs would be seeking a claim against a person, who died without attaining a sustentative status in the service. O.A. is accordingly dismissed. No costs.
