..Respondents

(By Advocate: Shri S.P. Singh with Shri Anil Srivastava, Joint Registrar, Principal Bench)

ORDER (ORAL)

Shri Shanker Raju:

Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

2. In our considered view, an affidavit filed by the Principal Registrar, C.A.T., Principal Bench, New Delhi as well as other respondents shows that all the directions of the Tribunal have been meticulously complied with in true letter and spirit. We also find that the issue regarding postponement of date of pension, which is further consolidated by a PPO issued to the applicant, has been made from 22.5.2005 to 1.3.2008 and second issue regarding commutation of pension, of which a request has already been made through representation, has not been acceded to and due to issue of three PPOs, the commutation was not made admissible to the applicant within the prescribed period being issues alien to the OA and for which no specific direction had been issued, gives rise to the fresh cause of action for which law shall take its own course on liberty to the applicant in accordance with law.

3. However, we are duly assisted by Shri Anil Srivastava, Joint Registrar, Principal Bench, CAT with Shri S.P. Singh, learned counsel and are of the view that directions of this Tribunal have been complied with in true letter and spirit. To challenge further cause of action, if so advised, we accord liberty to the applicant in accordance with law.

4. With this, CP stands disposed of. Notices are discharged.

No costs.
