2. Learned proxy counsel for the applicant indicated that at present he has no instruction in this matter.

3. The Tribunal earlier directed the respondents to pay retiral dues to the applicant as per rules within 45 days. The respondents filed their affidavit through which it is indicated that since the applicant is covered under CPF Scheme, as such, he is not entitled for any pensionary benefits as CPF is not covered under Pension Scheme. However, an amount of Rs. 9,68,571/- has already been paid to the applicant under the DRC Scheme vide order dated 15.03.2007 which is received by the applicant as well.

4. Since the dues to the applicant have already been paid, nothing is to survive to be adjudicated in the contempt petition. Accordingly, the contempt petition is dismissed and the notices issued to the respondents are discharged.
