- CCPA 66/1996

9/4.7.2003

At the very outset inviting attention to the order of this Tribunal passed in O.A. 62/96 in which directions had been given to the respondents to consider the representation of the applicant and also to ensure expeditious payment of settlement dues, if due to the applicant, the ld. counsel for the respondents Shri P.K. Verma has submitted that the directions of the Tribunal has since been complied with vide para 6 of the show-cause filed by them. He has also referred to the receipt of the amounts received by the applicant placed at Annexure-R/2 and R/3 of the O.A.

It is thus observed that the orders of this Tribunal given in O.A. 62/96 have already been complied with by the respondents, therefore, there is no reason why this CCPA should hold any further. Accordingly, this CCPA stands dismissed.
