7./ 10.7.96. Counsel for the applicant: Shri R. Sharma.

Heard Shri Sharma, the learned counsel for the applicant. In spite of the opportunity granted to him to produce the Rly. Circular by which certain considerations were granted for their wards for appointment, the learned counsel for the applicant was not able to produce the same. He is basing his entire claim on the basis of the order of the Lucknow Bench of the Tribunal by which the respondents in that matter were directed to dispose of the representation filed by the Association in 1992 in representative capacity. In the instant case, the applicant has made representation on 27.5.95, a copy of which has been annexed at Annexure -4 and 5. The reasons given in that application is that since the Allahabad Bench of the Tribunal had given direction in regard to appointment of Royal Rly. Official's wards, a similar treatment may be given to the applicant as well. This representation has not ~~been~~ so far been replied to by the respondents.

2. These representation are addressed to the Rlys. Minister and the Chief General Manager, Eastern Rly. and DRM, Howraha but none of these authorities have replied to the representation of the applicant.

3. OA is hopelessly time barred as it is not understood why the applicant who attained majority of the age of 21 some time in January, 1985 presses his claim for appointment in the Rly. on the ground now sought ~~in the~~ <sup>and</sup> set up in the OA

It is settled question of law that relief granted in one OA cannot be cause of action in another OA for grant of similar relief in the OA. In view thereof, the case is dismissed as hopelessly time barred.
