The matter is called out. None appears for the applicant. Shri A.N.Jha, the learned Counsel, appears on behalf of private respondent no.9. It transpires that vide order dated 27.3.2003, Bench has already been constituted of Hon'ble Mr. S.Jha, Member (A) along with Hon'ble Mrs.S.Dogra, M(J). That being the position, let this matter be listed for hearing before the appropriate Bench as and when available..

(B.N.Singh Neelam) V.C.

25/28.8.2003

Heard the learned counsel for private respondents Shri A.N. Jha. None is present on behalf of the applicant. Shri Jha has, at the very outset, submitted that the decisions of this Tribunal in GA No. 473/96 have been upheld by the Hon'ble High Court vide their orders dated 18.4.2001 passed in CWJC No. 4948 of 2001 (Annexure p/1 to the written statement filed on behalf of ^{the} respondents nos. 9 to 16, 18 to 20 and 22 to 25) and has, therefore, submitted that the applicants in the RA have no ground for seeking review of the orders passed by this Tribunal in the said GA. He has further submitted that if the applicants in the RA have still any grievance, they can approach this Tribunal with a fresh original application.

2. We have considered the matter and the submissions of the private respondents in the RA and observed that the submissions of the ld. counsel for the applicants deserves to be considered keeping in view the fact that the matter has already been considered by the Hon'ble High Court and the decision of the Tribunal upheld. We, therefore, dispose of this RA as having no merit, as it stands as at present. The applicants in the RA will, however, have the liberty to approach the appropriate forum for redressal of their grievances, if any and if they so desire. The RA stands disposed of accordingly.
