

1/29.1.96

Hon'ble Shri N. Sahu, Member (A)

Learned counsel for the applicant, Shri L. Narain, appears. The relief claimed in this case is to quash the impugned order of reversion contained in Annexure-3 and to absorb the petitioner in the cadre of Divisional Accountants taking into consideration <sup>extensive</sup> of their ~~experiences~~ and length of service.

2. The learned counsel has drawn my attention to Annexure-6, an order of this Bench dated 16.3.95, in which an application OA-415 of 1995 has been admitted. The learned counsel has also drawn my attention to sub-para (xii) <sup>xix)</sup> of para 5 of the application at page 12, in which 16 other O.As. were mentioned as admitted by this Bench on exactly similar facts.

Interim stay has been granted in all those cases and the interim stay is continuing, <sup>it is submitted by</sup> ~~in accordance with~~ the learned counsel for the applicant. After considering the submissions and going through the averments I am satisfied that this is a case for admission. Admitted.

Issue notice to the respondents to file Counter-Affidavit within a period of four weeks and rejoinder if any, may be filed within two weeks thereafter.

3. There is a prayer for an interim order seeking stay of the reversion order as contained in Annexure-3. It is urged by Shri Narain that the applicant is still working and not reverted. In view of the earlier interim order granted by the Patna Bench,

Received,
Nak Singh,
30/1/96.

The prayer of interim stay is allowed only for 14 days. The respondents are directed to file show cause as to why the interim stay order granted for 14 days shall not be made absolute. Requisites to be filed by the applicant within two days. Fix this case on 12.2.1996 for hearing on interim stay matter.

3./ 4.4.96. Counsel for the applicant : None.

Counsel for the respondents.: Shri J.N. Pandey, sr. standing
No. 1 to 3 counsel for Govt. of India.

Counsel for respondents No. 4 & 5 : None.

In this matter, Dr. A.N. Sinha, the learned counsel for the applicant mentioned at the time of lunch break at 1.30 P.M. that short adjournment may be granted in the matter because of his pre-occupation with pressing commitment. At that stage, Shri J.N. Pandey, the learned <sup>Sr. Standing</sup> counsel for the respondents Union of India objected to the adjournment sought for by the learned counsel for the applicant. I had directed the learned counsel for the applicant to be available when the case is called out, with observation that in case stay is not found to be sustainable, the same will be vacated. In spite of my that observation, the learned counsel for the applicant is not present in the court..

2. Shri J.N. Pandey, sr. standing counsel for the Union of India brought to my notice that the applicants in 16 other OAs, which has been mentioned in the order sheet dated 29.1.96 wherein interim stay is continuing has been contested by the respondents for vacation of the stay. The similar prayer made in other subsequent OAs from similarly situated employees for grant of interim stay has been refused by this Bench. The prayer made in this OA is for quashing the impugned order of reversion of the applicant from the Emergency Divisional Accountant in the office of the respondent No. 5 to the parent cadre because of the reasons given in the Annexure-3. The interim order prayed for by the applicant is also for staying the impugned reversion order. It is established proposition of law that the substantial relief sought for in the application cannot be granted by way of interim order. Since the learned counsel for the applicant is not available here today to argue why the interim order should be continued any further and in what manner this can prejudice his interest and will be against the balance of convenience, I am inclined to agree with the sr. standing counsel's submission that this stay should not be continued any further. In view of this, the stay order granted earlier on 29.1.96 is hereby vacated. The respondents are at liberty to take whatever action they deem fit in the matter. This order may be served dasti on the respondents.

3. Since this is a Division Bench matter, let it be put up before the appropriate Division Bench as and when the same is available. In the mean time, let the matter be put up before the Registry <sup>for</sup> completion of pleadings. Let this order be served through <sup>on the Respondents</sup> sr. standing counsel.

Counsel for the applicant : Mr. Laxmi Narain

Counsel for the U.O.I. Respondents : Mr. J.N. Pandey

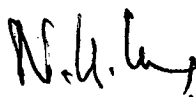

Counsel for the State of Bihar : Mr. B.N. Yadav.

Heard Mr. Laxmi Narain who brought to my notice that the stay order was vacated. Shri Narain was not available on the last date in the Court due to some personal problem. He submitted that the stay order should be vacated only by the Division Bench. Since the vacation of stay order has already been ordered on 4.4.1996, the question of restoration of stay order does not arise. Mr. Narain also brought to my notice that 6 identical nature of cases on which stay order
