Writ Petition No. 1912

of 1983.

Nand Kumar aged about 48 yearsson of late Mathura Prasad, resident of S.E/28E, Haider Canal Colony, Charbagh, Lucknow. . . . . Petitioner

Versus

1. Union of India through General Manager, Northern Railway, Baroda House, New Delhi.
2. Divisional Railway Manager, Northern Railway, Hazratganj, Lucknow.
3. Senior Divisional Personal Officer ~~to~~ II Northern Railway Hazratganj, Lucknow.

. . . . . Opposite Parties

The humble petitioner submits as under:-

1. That the petitioner is working as Head Telephone Operator and is posted at N.R. Exchange, Badshahnagar Lucknow.
2. That the opposite party No. 3 circulated a letter No. 561/E/6/2(T/O) dated 13-12-1982 for the selection ~~of~~ for the post of Chief Telephone Operator in the grade 550-750 (RS). A true and typed copy of the same is filed herewith as Annexure No. 1 to this writ petition.
3. That a part from the petitioner eight other persons were called for the test for the selection of the said post and it would not be out of place to mention that the persons mentioned below the name of the petitioner are much juniors in comparison to the petitioner.

4. That the said selection through test was held on 28-12-1982, but the petitioner was unfortunately fallen ill so he submitted his Railway Doctor's medical certificate from appearing into the said test.
5. That the Railway Board who is a Rule making authority and whose decisions are having the force of law have made the rules to cover <sup>such</sup> circumstances in which if a candidate due to unavoidable circumstances failed to appear in the test the relevant rule is reproduced as under:-

Supplementary Selections

"Supplementary Selection' means the selection which is held to consider those candidates who could not appear before the Selection Board due to late receipt of advice or failure of the Administration to relieve them in time or due to other unavoidable circumstances over which the candidates had no control.

Such selections are held to permit those candidates who could not appear in the first selection due to sickness or other such unavoidable circumstances mentioned above, to appear at a supplementary meeting of the Selection Board and avail their opportunity to be considered for the higher post.

Randkumar Sureshwar

Following are the rules in regard to holding supplementary selections:-

- (1) Failure to attend the first selection due to sickness should be covered by a medical certificate from a Railway Medical Officer.
- (2) Unavoidable absence does not include the absence to attend a wedding etc.
- (3) An absentee employee who does not return to duty within six months from the date of first selection, loses his claim for consideration.
- (4) Employees unable to appear at a selection due T.B. or Leprosy may, however, be allowed to appear at a later date provided they return to duty within one year from the date of original selection.
- (5) The supplementary Selection Board should, as far as possible, consist of the same officers who formed the original Board.
- (6) The supplementary selection should be held within a month of the date of original selection.
- (7) Absentees examined after three months and found suitable should be interpolated in the f list and should be given their due position which they would have attained had they appeared in time. The candidates selected in the supplementary selections their juniors who, on their selection, might have been promoted earlier (R.B'S. No. E 54PM 1/19/3 of 4-4-55 and E 56 PM 1/19/3 of 9-7-56).
- (8) According to revised instructions, not more than one supplementary selection should be held, (R.B's.

Nandkumar Sirelani

No. E(NG) 1-76 PM 1/168 of 3-9-76) (N.R., S.N. 6618).

6. That uptill now the opposite parties have not held any supplementary selection to test the suitability of the petitioner and as such they have violated para 6 of the Supplementary Section Rules.
7. That on 11-4-1983 in the morning the petitioner came to know that the opposite parties without holding any supplementary selection are going to hold the interview of the rest of the persons mentioned in Annexure No. 1, on today i.e. on 11-4-1983 hence the necessity arose for filing the present writ petition.
8. That in case the selection is completed after interview and its result then the petitioner who is senior than many other shall not only lose his seniority but the monetary loss shall also be caused to the petitioner.
9. That since the petitioner was ill on the date of the test i.e. on 28-12-1982 and he also submitted the medical certificate from the Railway Doctor to the opposite parties so he has got right to appear into the ~~writ~~ supplementary selection and the opposite parties are under obligation to hold the supplementary test.
10. That having no alternative efficacious remedy the petitioner is hereby challenging the said interview on the grounds inter alia:-

Randkumar Sureshram

G R O U N D S

- a) Because the petitioner was ill on the date of the test and hence he submitted Railway Doctor's medical certificate and his case is covered by para 1 and 6 of the rules for Supplementary Sections.
- b) Because the opposite parties are under obligation to hold the supplementary selection within a month from the first selection i.e. from 28-12-1982 and in not doing so the opposite parties have violated the law.
- c) Because the opposite parties are under obligation and are liable to be commanded to hold the supplementary selection before the interview and finalising the appointment of any one on the post of Chief Telephone Operator in grade 550-750 (RS).

P R A Y E R

Wherefore it is prayed that this Hon'ble Court may be pleased to ~~xxxxx~~:-

- i) to issue a suitable order, direction or writ in the nature of mandamus commanding the opposite parties to hold the supplementary Section atonce maintaining the seniority of the petitioner against the persons mentioned in the Annexure No. 1.
- ii) to issue a suitable order, direction or writ in the nature of mandamus commanding the opposite parties not to finalise the appointment of any one unless and until the supplementary selection of the petitioner is held and results are declared.
- iii) to issue a writ, order or direction which this Hon'ble High Court may deem just and proper in the facts of the case along with the cost of the writ petition.
