ORAL JUDGMENT:

Dated: 4.10.1989.

(Per: Shri M.B.Mujumdar, Member(J)

In view of the letter dated 14.12.1988 from the CPO(IR), Bombay V.T. addressed to the DRM(P), Bhusawal, Mr.Rege learned counsel for the respondents has made the following statement in writing:

"The respondents agree to re-screen the applicants 1 and 3 and in case the said applicants on re-screening are found suitable they will be empanelled at the appropriate place in panel
dt. 24.4.1986 and absorbed according to their turn.

The respondents state that they have already appointed applicant No.2 in view of his having been found suitable on screening and he is in service at present."

2. In view of this statement, Mr.Gangal withdraws this application. He however, states that regarding the other reliefs, the applicant would make representations to the concerned authorities and if they do not consider the representations favourably the applicant would file fresh application or applications in respect of the reliefs.

3. In view of the above position the application is disposed of as withdrawn with liberty to file fresh application or applications in respect of the remaining reliefs. There will be no order as to costs. Contempt Petition which is filed by the applicants on 10.9.1987 be numbered. That is also disposed of.
