ORAL JUDGMENT

Dated: 25.4.1988

(PER: B.C.Gadgil, Vice Chairman)

Regular Civil Suit No. 188/85 of the file of the Civil Judge, Junior Division, Manmad is transferred to this Tribunal for decision.

2. The applicant (original plaintiff) is a Railway employee. In August, 1985 he was a Ticket Collector at Manmad. On 6.8.1985 he was transferred from Manmad to Shegaon. The applicant filed Suit No. 188/85 challenging his transfer. He also applied for interim relief. On 5.11.1985 the Civil Judge passed an order of status-quo. On the basis of this order the applicant continued to work at Manmad.

3. On account of events subsequent to the filing of the suit, it is not necessary to go in details about the claim made by the applicant in respect of transfer from Manmad to Shegaon. I am told that on 8.2.1988 the applicant is transferred from the post of Ticket Collector and is posted as Train Ticket Examiner at Manmad. He has taken charge of new posting. Thus, his transfer dated 6.8.1985 as a Ticket Collector does not survive. In view of the present position, I pass the following order.

4. The impugned order of 6.8.1985 does not survive, in view of the subsequent transfer and posting of the applicant on 8.2.1988 as Train Ticket Examiner. Consequently, the application stands disposed of for this reason. Parties to bear their own costs.
