ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 24-6-1987

(Per M.B.Mujumdar, Member(J))

Heard Mr.Gangal for the applicant and Mr.S.R.Atre(for Mr.P.M.Pradhan)for the respondents.

~~The applicant is working as working~~ as Train Examiner with the Central Railway. By an order dtd.9-7-86 he is transferred from Bhusaval to Itarsi. He has taken ~~the~~ charge at Itarsi under protest. He has filed this application for directing the respondents to transfer him from Itarsi to Bhusaval or Manmad on the ground of the education of his children.

Today the applicant has produced a copy of <sup>0</sup>the letter dtd.2-4-1987 from one Ajit Singh Mohan Singh who is working as Train Examiner at ~~Itarsi~~ Manmad. He has requested for a transfer from Manmad to Itarsi on the ground of the education of his children. Below that letter there is the letter of the applicant requesting for his transfer from Itarsi to Manmad. In short that is a request for mutual transfer of each other for the convenience of the education of their children.

We are not here to run the administration and direct the authorities to transfer one employee from one place to another. Grounds like education of the children are to be considered by the authorities concerned and not by this Tribunal. Hence we are not in a position to give any directions to the respondents regarding the transfer of the applicant from Itarsi to Manmad or regarding the mutual application of the applicant and Ajit Singh Mohan Singh. We leave ~~the matter~~ the matter to the authorities to deal with that mutual application according to the rules and convenience of the administration. We therefore find no point which would be adjudicated upon by this Tribunal in this case. This application is therefore rejected summarily under Section 19(3) of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985.
