respondent No.3.

ORAL JUDGMENT:-

(Per: Shri M.B.Mujumdar, Member(J))

Dated: 14.3.1989

Heard Mr.B.T.Patil, learned advocate for the applicant for some time, Mr.S.V.Gole(for Mr.S.V.Natu) advocate for respondents No.1 and 2 and Mr.M.N.Beleskar, learned advocate for respondent No.3.

2. The applicant has filed this application on 24.6.1988 challenging the order dated 6.6.1988(Annexure-E to the application). By that order the applicant who was working

was working as Higher Selection Grade-I at Nagpur was transferred to Bombay Sorting Division, Bombay as Higher Selection Grade-I(HSG-I). The applicant was previously also by order dated 1.9.1987 (Annexure-A to the application) was transferred to Bombay as HSG-I. But on his representation he was allowed to stay at Nagpur upto the completion of the academic year.

3. By our order dated 24.6.1988 the application was admitted and ad interim ex-parte stay of the transfer order was granted upto 8.7.1988, if the applicant had not been relieved till that date. Thereafter the applicant had filed Contempt Petition but it was dismissed on 17.8.1988. Now the applicant has joined his posting at Bombay in September, 1988 and since then he is working there. It was contended by Mr.B.T.Patil, learned advocate for the applicant, that the applicant was transferred from Nagpur to Bombay for favouring respondent No.3. But the applicant's transfer has already come into effect. This Tribunal ^{is} generally reluctant to interfere with transfer orders unless there is satisfactory evidence or circumstances to prove mala-fide. In our view concerned authorities are better suited to decide as to which employee should be transferred to which place. I do not find that the transfer order in this case is liable to be quashed or set aside on any ground. Hence the application is dismissed with no order as to costs.
