ORAL JUDGEMENT

Dated: 6.8.93

{ Per Shri M.S. Deshpande, Vice Chairman }

Heard counsel for the parties. The applicant continued in service till 18.10.84 on the pretext that he was working as casual Khalasi with effect from 19.7.84 to 18.10.84 and that he was not given the service card inspite of his demand. His representations were also not accepted. According to the respondents, the applicant had worked as casual labour with effect from 19.7.84 to 18.10.84 and thereafter, he absented from the work. Further since the case has not been filed within three years from the date of cause of action, it is barred by time.

2. We have heard the applicant in person and Shri Sawant for the respondents. It is apparent that the applicant had worked for less than 90 days and he could not get the <sup>benefit of permanent casual</sup> permanent service and shall be continued in service. In the written argument which is filed today states that he was kept at Nagpur and was working for Shri N.K. Agrawal as a domestic servant as per orders of I.O.C. without absence. No evidence is produced for his contention. Since the applicant had no right of appointment and the application is not filed within the time, no relief can be granted to the applicant.

The application is dismissed accordingly.
There shall be no order as to costs.
