{Per Shri Govindan S. Tampi, Member (A)}

who were working as Head Clerks in the Railway claim that they were ^{entitled} ~~withheld~~ to promotion as Chief Clerk against the restrsuctured posts. However the administration had held back the promotion by not granting the benefit of reservation for such posts, which they were correctly ^{entitled} ~~withheld~~ to.

2. Applicants in OA 275/96 are similarly circumstanced in all respects. They were also applicants 10 - 12 in OA 136/96 and were permitted to segregate their case and file the OA.

3. When the two cases came up for hearing today Shri R. Ramamurthy appearing for the applicants stated that the relief sought by them has been granted by the Railways and that nothing further ^{was} required to be done.

4. In view of the above. OA 274/96 and 275/96 are dismissed by this common order as having become infructuous.
