The application having been heard on 3rd July, 1997
the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following:

O R D E R

(Per M.R. Kolhatkar, Member(A))

In this OA claim of applicant is for compassionate appointment in succession to her late husband who expired on 18-6-1990. Applicant filed an application for compassionate appointment on 29-6-1990 and a negative reply was sent on 5-9-91. Thereafter the applicant pursued the matter and the respondents vide their letter dt. 28-12-92 purporting to ^{reply to-} application dt. 30-11-1992 stated that the verification of pecuniary condition for providing compassionate appointment is still awaited from civil authorities and after receiving the same her case will be examined/considered.

-: 2 :-

there was

Thereafter/no further follow up to this letter.

Applicant therefore has rightly raised a grievance that her representation was not finally disposed of and the respondents are harping on the earlier rejection letter which is superseded by the subsequent letter.

2. Under the circumstance I ~~do~~ dispose of the OA by directing the respondents to send a reply to the applicant in continuation of the letter dt. 28-12-1992. The reply should be sent within six weeks of the date of communication of the order and the reply should be self-contained. Applicant is at liberty to file a fresh OA if aggrieved.
3. With this direction OA is disposed of.
