This is an application challenging the order of removal from service in a disciplinary enquiry. After hearing the Learned Counsel for the applicant we find the applicant has not exhausted statutory remedy of filing appeal before appellate authority. The Learned Counsel now says that applicant will now filed an appeal. The application has been filed on 03.05.1999, well within the appeal period. It may be that the appeal period has not expired during the pendency of the O.A. Therefore, if an appeal is filed now by the applicant before the Appellate Authority within four weeks from today, the appellate authority shall consider the appeal on merits without going to the question of limitation and dispose of the same according to law. All contentions on merits are left open.

2. In the result, the O.A. is disposed of subject to above observations. No order as to costs.
