The applicant was engaged in the post of Extra Departmental Delivery Agent (EDDA for short) Ganore on purely and provisional basis as a stop gap arrangement with effect from 2.1.98. He continued till 2.3.98. Thereafter he was given a break and was re appointed on 27.2.99. Again on 21.3.2000 according to the applicant, he was orally informed not to report for duty. There is no record for this. Applicant is aggrieved that his service has been dis engaged. Further, the applicant has come to know that one Smt. Seema Dinkar Borade has been appointed as EDDA, <sup>Ganote</sup>.

2. We see from the reply of the respondents that those who were selected as EDDA after regular selection had been found surplus at some other places and had therefore, ~~had~~ to be adjusted against vacant posts and therefore, the applicant had to be dis engaged. The applicant's appointment as EDDA was not in pursuance of any regular selection held for the post of EDDA. As such the applicant has no case. The OA is dismissed at the admission stage. Similarly the MP for impleading Smt. Seema Dinkar Borade and the Postal Inspector, Sangamner Sub-division, Sangamner as respondents is also dismissed. No costs
