2. These applicants are direct recruit Preventive Officers having been recruited through Staff Selection Commission. According to them they have been given wrong seniority vis-a-vis promotees in the seniority list issued on 7.4.99^{of} all the Preventive Officers of Goa Customs House. The applicants appeared for the combined selection held in 1990^{for} for the post of Preventive Officers of Goa Customs House and after due selection and appointment, they have been working there from different dates shown against their names, in the select list of 7.4.99. According to them they are entitled to be placed above the promotees. The vacancies are to be filled through direct recruits and promotees in the ratio of 3:1 as per the rules governing the quota between direct recruits and promotees. Vacancies of Preventive Officers were reported to Staff Selection Commission for direct recruitment in 1990. Only after selection, depending upon the availability of the direct recruits, the share of the promotees was required to be filled. According to the applicants, on account of under reporting of the vacancies coming to the share of the direct recruits for the years preceding 1990, many of the promotees including respondents 3 to 19 were appointed by promotion to the posts of Preventive Officers. These appointments are in excess of the quota prescribed under recruitment rules. According to the applicants, the period spent by the promotees till the occurrence of vacancies coming to the share of promotees is required to be treated as adhoc and fortuitous in terms of the orders issued by the Govt. of India. The applicants gave a representation to the respondents on 7.5.99 bringing out ^how from 1988 onwards promotions were granted in excess of the quota.

3. The facts and the issue involved in this OA are more or less similar to those in OA 866/2000. No reply is filed by the official respondents. The reply has been filed today by the private respondents No.10. In view of the reasons recorded by us in the earlier OA 866/2000, we are inclined to pass a similar order in this case also to the extent that the respondents shall look into the question of whether respondents 3 to 19 have been promoted in excess of the quota meant for the promotees or otherwise. The respondents are, therefore, directed to review the position accordingly within a period of three months from the date of receipt of ^ucopy of this order and pass a speaking order under intimation to respondents 3 to 19 as also the applicants. OA is disposed off accordingly with no order as to costs.
