CORAM: SWATANTER KUMAR, C.J., &
A.P. DESHPANDE, J.

DATE : 8TH JULY, 2008

P.C.:

The learned counsel appearing for the parties commonly state that the question of law arising in the present writ petition as to whether the Union of India/ Prasar Bharati had a right to transfer its employees or not is no more res integra and stands squarely answered by the Supreme Court in the case of Prasar Bharati and others v. Amarjeet Singh and others, (2007) 2 SCC (L&S) 566.

2. In view of the stand taken, nothing survives in this writ petition and the same is disposed of reiterating the principle of law enunciated by the Supreme Court in the case of Amarjeet Singh (supra) and the interim orders passed by the court are vacated. However; we make it further clear that as this writ petition has been pending before this court for considerably time, it would be appropriate that the petitioner may re-issue the orders of transfer wherever it is necessary and they consider it appropriate.

3. With the aforesaid observation, both the writ petitions are disposed of with no order as to costs. Consequently, the order passed by the Central Administrative Tribunal dated 5th October, 2000 is quashed and set aside.

4.3. The applicant submits that it is therefore abundantly clear from the aforementioned facts that the Applicant was appointed by the Government of India by issuing various orders and she was declared as a Government Servant from 1982 and all the terms and conditions as also the rules and regulations applicable to the Government servant were made applicable to the Applicant after taking a specific option from the Applicant. The Applicant submits that she is all along the employee of the Government of India and her service conditions are also fixed under the Government Orders issued from time to time.

4.4. The Applicant submit that she <sup>is</sup> all along the employee of the Government of India and is under the control of Officers of the Government of India.

4.5. The Applicant submits that however all of a sudden an impugned Order dated 21.3.2000 has been issued by Respondent No.2 without any authority, jurisdiction and power transferring the Applicant from Mumbai to Rajkot that is out of Maharashtra State. The Applicant submits that on the basis of this illegal order again the Respondent No.3 has issued a relieving order dated 31.3.2000. The Applicant submits that both these orders have been issued by the Officers of the Prasar Bharati (Broadcasting Corporation of India) as is evident from the said order. The applicant submits that she is not the employee of the said Prasar Bharati (Broadcasting Corporation of India) and therefore these orders are without any authority, jurisdiction and power. conditions cannot be changed without her consent as also her service cannot be transferred to the said corporation without her consent.

4.6. The Applicant submits that the Government of India has enacted the Prasar Bharati (Broadcasting Corporation of India) act. The Applicant submits that this act deals with various aspects concerning the establishment and composition of the corporation, appointment of Chairman and <sup>Board</sup> ~~brought~~ of Governors, their functions, recruitment boards etc. The Applicant submits that the act also provides for the transfer of service of existing employees to corporation under Clause 11 of the said act which is reproduced herein below:

"Transfer of Service of existing employees to corporation".

the corporation any of the Officers or other employees serving in the Akashvani or Door Darshan and engaged in the performance of those functions:

Provided that no order under this Sub-Section shall be made in relation to any Officer or other employee in the Akashvani or Door Darshan who has, in respect of the proposal of the Central Government to transfer said Officer or other employee to the Corporation, intimated within such time as may be specified in this behalf by the Central Government, has intention of not becoming an employee of the Corporation." Annexed herewith and marked as Exhibit '9' is a copy of the ~~Clause~~ relevant Extract of Clause 11 of Prasar Bharati (Broadcasting Corporation of India) Act.

employee of the Corporation. The Applicant submits that in case any employee do not want to become an employee of the Corporation then the Central Government cannot issue an order to transfer the services of that particular employee to the Corporation. The Applicant further submits that as per the statutory requirement it shall be lawful for the Central Government to transfer, by order and with effect from such date or dates as may be specified in the order, to the Corporation any of the Officers or employees serving in the Akashvani or Door Darshan who exercised the option or accept the proposal of the Government to become an employee of the Corporation. already issued orders from time to time on the subject of conversion of Central Government departments into autonomous body or the Corporation under which certain terms and conditions are required to be prescribed for absorbing the employees. Annexed herewith and marked as Exhibit '10' is a copy of OM dated 05 Jul 1989. The Applicant submits that this <sup>is</sup> well settled position in law that the service conditions of the employees as also the employer of the employees cannot be changed without ~~consent~~ <sup>consent</sup> of that particular employee. The Applicant submits that no ~~consent~~ <sup>consent</sup> whatsoever has been taken from the Applicant to change her employer as also to change her service conditions. The Applicant submits that she is a Central Government employee and governed by the service conditions applicable to Central Government employees and when she is transferred to the Corporation the service conditions will certainly change as also the employer is changed. The Applicant submits that as per the Prasar Bharati (Broadcasting Corporation of India) Act, the Corporation is required to frame the regulations with regard to the terms and conditions of employees which has not so far been done by the

A. Jyothi Navade

Corporation and therefore the Applicant is not aware of what are her terms and conditions when she becomes an employee of the Corporation. The Applicant submits that therefore in the acts itself it has been made mandatory for the Government to give an option to the employees before transferring their services to the Corporation.

4.9. The Applicant submits that she is serving in Mumbai for the last 28 years and she is permanently settled in Mumbai and is due to retire from service very shortly. The Applicant submits that she is a lady employee having their family problems which she has to attend. The Applicant submits that when she has been transferred from Mumbai to Rajkot one has to think about how she is going to live in the new place alone. The Applicant submits that it is extremely difficult for her to leave Mumbai and join the new station which will entirely disrupt and ruin her family life. The Applicant submits that this transfer will compel the Applicant to leave the job as it is highly impossible for her to join the new station.

4.10. The Applicant submits that she has been working in

Contd...

A. Jyothi Navada.

Mumbai for the last 28 years and carrying out her job sincerely effectively and without any complaint from anyone. The Applicant submits that she is a Graphic Artist and is required to prepare boards which are displayed on the screen and these boards she has been preparing either in English or Hindi and sometime in Marathi also which is required in the state of Maharashtra. The Applicant submits that she has been transferred to Rajkot where she has to undertake the job in Gujarati and she does not know this language. The Applicant submits that therefore she will not be able to carry out her duties as a Graphic Artist in Rajkot and therefore no useful purpose will be served by transferring her from Mumbai to Rajkot. The Applicant submits that therefore there is no public interest at all in transferring the Applicant from Mumbai to Rajkot but the said transfer is in fact against the public interest.

Ex. 11

4.11. The Applicant submits that the transfer is also against the transfer policy issued by Respondents vide Memorandum dated 31.12.1992. Annexed herewith and marked as Exhibit '11' is a copy of OM dated 31.12.1992. The Applicant submits that under the said policy locally recruited and low paid employees would normally not been transferred except on promotion or on receipt of written request from the employee in question. The Applicant is locally recruited and low paid employee and her transfer is neither on promotion nor on her written request. The Applicant submit that therefore also the transfer is bad.

Contd...

A. Jyothi Narada

4.12. The Applicant submits that the transfer order issued and she has been relieved without giving any breathing time or to make a representation, against the said order. The Applicant submits that having left with no other alternative she is approaching this Hon'ble Tribunal for justice.

5. Grounds for Relief with Legal Provisions. The Applicant is challenging the action of the Respondents on the following amongst other grounds which are without prejudice to one another.

5.1. The Applicant submits that the impugned orders are bad in law in as much as the same having been issued by the competent authority. The Applicant submits that the Director,

Contd...

A. Jyothi Navada

Door Darshan, Mumbai, under the Government of India, is the competent recruiting authority, appointing authority and also the transferring authority. The Applicant submits that however, the transfer order is issued by Respondent No.2 and the relieving order is issued by Respondent No.3 who have no powers, authority and jurisdiction to issue these orders and therefore the impugned orders are required to be quash and set aside.

5.2. The Applicant submits that she is an employee of Central Government and not the employee of Prasar Bharati (Broadcasting Corporation of India) and therefore only the Competent officers of the Central Government can issue any order transferring the Applicant from one place to another place. The Applicant submits that however, her transfer order and relieving order have been issued by the Corporation who is not the employer of the Applicant and therefore the impugned orders issued by the Prasar Bharati (Broadcasting Corporation of India) are bad in law and is required to be quash and set aside.

Contd...

A. Jyothi Narada

5.3. The Applicant submits that as per the provisions of the Prasar Bharati (Broadcasting Corporation of India) Act the Central Government must make a proposal and must give an option to the employees to become an employee of the Corporation. As per the provisions of the act if employee given an option to become an employee of the corporation then the government must issue an order to that effect then that employee will become an employee of the Corporation. The Applicant submits that however, if an employee do not want to become an employee of the Corporation then the government cannot pass an order transferring their services to that particular employee to the Corporation. The Applicant submits that she has not yet given any option to become an employee of the corporation and therefore she is not an employee of the Corporation. The Applicant submits therefore the impugned orders issued by the Corporation are bad in law and are required to be quash and set aside.

5.4. The Applicant submits that as per the transfer policy

Contd...

A. Jyothi Narada

locally recruited staff and low paid employees should not be transferred except on promotion or on written request from the employee. The Applicant submits that neither she has been promoted nor given a written request for such a transfer. The Applicant submits that therefore, the impugned orders are bad in law and required to be quash and set aside.

5.5. The Applicant submits that the transfer has been made without any norms or guidelines. The Applicant submits that the Respondents have resorted to pick and choose policy and the Applicant has been transferred arbitrarily, at the whims and fancies of the Respondents. The Applicant submits that the transfer is in a colourable exercise of the powers of the Respondents and therefore the same is bad in law and is required to be quash and set aside.

5.6. The Applicant submits that she is a lady employee and has been transferred to far off place disturbing her entire family life. The Applicant submit that the Respondent must consider the case of the Applicant on a different footing other than the one applicable to the male employees. The Applicant submit that therefore the transfer is totally non application of mind and therefore the same is required to be quash and set aside.

A. Jyoti Navada

6. Details of remedies exhausted. The Applicant submit that there is no effective remedy against the impugned orders and therefore the Applicant is approaching this Hon'ble Tribunal.

7. Matters Previously filed or pending with any other Court. The Applicant further declares that she had not previously filed any application, writ petition or suit regarding the matter in respect of which this application has been made before any court or any other authority or any other Bench of the Tribunal nor any application, Writ Petition or Suit is pending in any of them.

8. Relief Sought: In view of the facts mentioned hereinabove, the Applicant pray for the following reliefs:

Contd...
