O R D E R (ORAL)

[Per: B.N.Bahadur, M (A)]

1. Learned Counsel for the Applicant Shri Ramamurthy and Shri M.I.Sethna with Shri Vadhavkar heard. Shri M.I.Sethna informs us that the Suspension Order in respect of the applicant has been revoked on 5.10.2000. Thus the grievance of the applicant made in para 8 (a) & (c) does not survive any more.

2. It is seen that in this Order dated 5th October, 2000 revoking suspension, it is stated that this order is without prejudice to the outcome of the disciplinary proceedings or any other proceedings that have been initiated/may be initiated against Shri Subhash Wig, Preventive Officer.

3. The prayer made at para 8(b) is reproduced as below:

"(b) that this Hon'ble Tribunal be pleased to hold and declare that the department cannot issue any departmental chargeheet at this stage on the material on which the CBI has filed Special Case No.69/99 against the Applicant for disproportionate assets."

4. Learned Counsel for Applicant prays that the O.A. may be disposed of subject to this prayer at (at 8 (b) being left open and he be granted liberty to agitate it as per law. Learned Counsel for the Respondents is heard on this point. It is ordered that in regard to this prayer, the issue is open on both sides. The Applicant shall be at liberty to agitate the matter as per law. The O.A. is disposed of subject to the above observations.

5. No orders as to costs.

CP No.46/2001 in OA No.324/2000

Date : 13.9.2001.

Heard Mr.G.K. Masand, Counsel for the applicant and Mr.V.G. Rege, Counsel for respondents.

We are informed that Ramesh Ramachandran, alleged contemner, has been posted on 27.4.2001 as Commissioner of Customs (G), New Customs House, Ballar-Estate, Mumbai. We do not find any negligence on the part in giving effect to Order of this Tribunal.
Soon after his joining the Order has been given effect
and therefore no contempt is committed under Section 11 of Contempt of Courts Act and therefore notice
against him is discharged and proceedings are dropped

Before parting with the case, we are of the view that though Ramesh Ramachandran is not at fault
but the department has not been vigilant in the matter in giving effect to the Order, especially when the applicant has been making representation which ultimately required even the Lawyer's notice ~~was not~~ ~~responded~~. We hope that the department will be careful in future in respect of implementation of Tribunal's Order. Since the proceedings are dropped, the Contempt Petition ~~is~~ stands disposed of.
