15.10.2001

This OA has been listed for orders as there are too many defects.
The Office intimated the applicant to remove defects on 3.8.2001 which was followed by reminders dated 4.9.2001 but the applicant has not taken care to remove the defects.

The defects go to the ~~effect~~ ^{extent} that the O.A. is belated and no application for condonation has been filed.
Annexures have not been attested.
Sufficient number of copies have not been supplied nor envelopes have been given for service of notice. For the aforesaid defects, the OA is liable to be dismissed. However, since none is present on behalf of the applicant, the OA is dismissed for non-prosecution.
