(Per Shri Kuldip Singh, Member(J))

The points involved in these two OAs are common. These OAs are disposed of by passing a common order.

:2:

2. The applicants in these OAs are seeking compassionate appointment. The request of the applicants have been rejected. The grievance of the applicants are that the order of rejection does not assign any reason as to why the request for compassionate appointment have been rejected. The learned counsel for the applicant has drawn my attention to Annexure A-6 the guide lines dated 2.11.1993 adopted by the respondents themselves for considering the case for compassionate appointment.

3. In view of this the OAs can be disposed of with a direction to the respondents to pass a speaking order on the request of the applicants for compassionate appointment and while passing the speaking order, the respondents shall also keep in view the policy and guidelines issued from time to time. The order shall be passed within a period of two months. The OAs stands disposed of.
