7. That in reply to the contents of para 4(d) it is submitted that on receipt of the names of the candidates application forms were sent to all the three candidates by registered post. On receipt of the application from Sri Onkar Singh, further action was initiated and it was found that Sri Onkar Singh is the permanent resident of village Hakami and owns landed property in the same village as has been certified by the Pradhan of Village Hakauni and verified by departmental officer. Photo state copies of the said certificate and the report of the Inspector are being filed as Annexure III and IV respectively. Sri Onkar Singh fulfils all the requisite qualification and requirements for the post.

8. That in view of the facts indicated in the foregoing paras, the contents of para 4(e) of the application need no comments. The Tribunal is not the proper forum for making allegations against the Pradhan of a Village.

R. A. Vemp

Cont.....3.

9. That the contents of para 4(f) of the application are denied. Rule 12 of the Posts and Telegraphs Extra Departmental Agents (Conduct and Service) Rules, 1964 relate to "Form and Contents of appeal" which is not relevant to the subject matter of the present petition.

10. That the contents of para 4 (g) are not admitted. In view of the facts and circumstances explained in paras 5 and 7 above, there is no need for making fresh requisition to the Employment Exchange. As the Employment Exchange had already sponsored the name of three candidates of Village Hakauni, there is no necessity to make a fresh requisition. The suitability from the post about a candidate was to be ascertained by the deponent from amongst the applicants of these candidates only. As Sri Onkar Singh was the only candidate amongst three candidates sponsored by the Employment Exchange, his application was processed for appointment. There has been no abuse in the process for recruitment.

11. That in view of the facts and circumstances mentioned in the preceding paragraphs, the grounds taken by the applicant are not tenable in law, the application lacks merit and is liable to be dismissed with cost.

12. That the applicant has not exhausted the departmental remedies available to her. Appeal against the order of Respondent No.2 lies with the Respondent No.3, but the applicant in this case did make any representation against so called irregularity in the method of recruitment adopted by Respondent No.2.

13. That the contents of para 7 of the application need no comments.

14. That in reply to the contents of para 8 of the application it is submitted that the proper procedure for recruitment as detailed in the preceding paragraphs has been adopted. As such no fresh <sup>registration</sup> ~~registration~~ to the employment exchange is necessary.

15. That in view of the above facts, the interim relief granted by the Hon'ble Tribunal has been sought to be ~~rejected~~ vacated through an application already filed before the Tribunal.

16. That in view of the facts and circumstances mentioned in the above paragraphs, the application is not tenable in law, it lacks merit and is liable to be dismissed with cost.

3. That para 2, 3 and 4 of the affidavit are not disputed.

4. That para 6 of the affidavit is denied and it is submitted that out of three names only one candidate (i.e. respondent no.4 ) is from village Garhi hamlet of Hakami, as such none of the candidates were eligible for the disputed post, resultantly the post ought to have been notified through public

7. That para 9 of the affidavit is denied and it is submitted that as per the Recruitment Rules where the only one eligible candidate was sponsored, it was mandatory on the part of respondent no.2 to place fresh requisition to Employment Exchange or notify the vacancy through public advertisement but nothing had been done because of only plain arbitrariness of respondent no.2.

8. That para 10 of the affidavit is denied and it is submitted that the deponent/applicant is very much aggrieved of such illegal acts of respondent no.2 by which the applicant has been deprived of her constitutional
