Advocate for Respondent

Date	Office Notes	Orders of Tribunal
17-6-86	it is 8 The applicant is an employee of Indian Council for Agriculture Research (ICAR). The question whether ICAR is a department of the Government or one of the authorities mentioned under Section 14(2) requires to be clarified. If it is a department of the Government, then this Bench of the Tribunal has jurisdiction to entertain the application but if it is an authority specified under Section 14(2), then this Bench of the Tribunal has no jurisdiction to entertain the application as necessary notification under Section 14(2) in relation to ICAR has not been yet issued. 2. In this application, the applicant is seeking 2 distinct reliefs based on 2 separate orders. By one order dated 19-12-1985, the applicant was asked to work in the field though he was initially appointed in the office. That order is produced as Annexure-B. By another order dated 24-2-86, his period of probation was extended by 2 years with effect from 28.2.1985. Annexure-F. Both the orders are impugned in this application. 3. According to Rule 10 of the Central Administrative Tribunal (Procedure) Rules, 1985, the applicant shall not seek relief or reliefs based on more than a single cause of action in one application unless the reliefs prayed for are are Consequential .....2/-

	to one another. In the instant case, there are 2 separate and distinct orders passed on 2 different dates unconnected with each other. The reliefs sought are not ancillary or consequential to each other. In fact, there are 2 distinct causes of action. This matter requires to be clarified. The application is ordered to be registered and posted before the Bench on 3.7.86 for preliminary hearing, after notice to the advocate for the applicant.              (Venkatesh Patil)            Registrar            17-6-86          SO(J)

3.7.86		Shri Ananda Ramu, Counsel for the applicant, present. Heard the counsel. In terms of Section 14(2) of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985, a notification by the Central Government covering the institutions like the Respondent i.e. I.C.A.R. is a sine qua non, for entertaining disputes relating to such organisations under the above Act. In the present case no notification has, as yet, been issued by the xxx Central Government under the aforesaid provision and therefore we have no jurisdiction to deal with the present application. We, therefore, refrain from taking the xxx case on file, and direct the Registry to return the application to the applicant with the enclosures.              (Ch.
