A No.170 and 171/86

Orders on IA No.2.

In this application the Respondents have sought for extension of time by another two months, to comply with the final order made by this Tribunal on 28.11.1986. The Respondents have pleaded various administrative difficulties for non-compliance with the order within the original time granted by this Tribunal and subsequently extended.

IA No.2 is seriously opposed by the applicant.

We are of the view that ^{the} ~~in~~ the peculiar circumstances pleaded by the Respondents, ~~it is reasonable~~ ^{it is justifiable} to grant another 45 days' time as a final chance to comply with the order made by this Tribunal. We, therefore, allow this application in part and allow 45 days from this day, for compliance ^{with the} of the order of the Tribunal. We need hardly say that our order is not subject to approval by any other authority.

IA No.2 is disposed of in the above terms

Respondents

(Sri M.S.Padmarajaiah

... Advocate)

This application has come up before the court today.

Hon'ble Sri Ch.Ramakrishna Rao, Member(J) made the following :

ORDER

By this I.A. dated 21.7.87 filed by the respondents in A.Nos.170 & 171 of 86 the said respondents viz. Union of India & ers have sought a further extension of time by two months to implement the order of this Tribunal dated 28.11.86 rendered in the said applications. Extension of time already granted to do so expires today i.e. 22.7.87 and hence this I.A.

2. Sri M.S.Padmarajaiah informs us that his clients are considering the filing of special leave petition to the Supreme Court against this Tribunal's order of 28.11.86 and that the matter is in the hands of the Central Law Agency. That is why they have not been able to implement the said order so far. He prays that two months time asked for may be granted to enable his clients to go to the Supreme Court and possibly obtain a stay order.

3. We allow extension of time of two months from 22.7.87 as prayed for.
