(Shri M.S. Padmarajaiah, SCGSC)

This application having come up for hearing to-day,
Vice-Chairman made the following:

ORDER

The applicant, who is present in court, has filed a memo stating that he does not press the application.

2. In the memo the applicant has expressed that ne is ready and willing to work as a casual labourer in the organisation of the respondent. Shri M.S. Padmarajaiah, learned counsel for the respondents, submits that the respondent organisation cannot give any assurance to the applicant to engage him as a casual labourer.

3. Before the service of the applicant was stopped or terminated, he had worked for very nearly three years. We do hope that the respondents will consider the case of the applicant at least for providing him employment as a casual labourer whenever it is possible to do so.

4. On the foregoing, we dismiss this application as not pressed by the applicant. But in the circumstances of the case, we direct the parties to bear their own costs.
