Date: 21-8-90.

Heard counsel of the applicants with respect to M.P. 683/90.

Since the challenge is against the transfer of ~~the~~ four applicants there is no scope for all of them joining in the same application. The attack against the transfer has to be considered independently with respect to each of them on such grounds as are available.

Counsel of the applicant submitted that the present application may be treated as having been filed only by the first applicant. The submission is recorded.

②

It is open to the first applicant to file a separate application under the same number deleting the names of the applicants no. 2 onwards and making the ~~applicant's~~ averments concerning him alone. As it was submitted by the counsel that certain other grounds are also available, the first applicant is at liberty to include such averments ^{also} in the applications.
