ORAL JUDGEMENT

Dated: 18.10.1994

(PER: M.S.Deshpande, Vice Chairman)

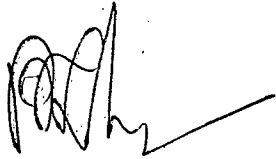

The only question which arises for consideration is whether the applicant should have been considered for promotion before his juniors Sabastian and Koli came to be considered. There is no dispute about the fact that the applicant came to be promoted as Chargeman (AWS) on 6.9.1991 when his juniors Sabastian and Koli came to be promoted earlier.

2. The rule which governs the promotion is as follows :-

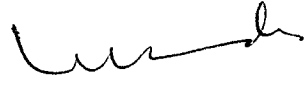

" Individuals (Ammunition Mechanic) who have passed matriculation or equivalent and have three years regular service in the grade and have successfully undergone Basic Ammunition Training Course, failing which, Ammunition Mechanic who have three years regular service and have successfully undergone Basic Ammunition Course."

The applicant admittedly had passed 8th std. and was not Matriculate and therefore would not fall in the first category. The applicant's contention that Sabastian and Koli who were junior to him had not passed the basic Ammunition Course as they were not <sup>so shown</sup> found in the select list. However, <sup>stated in the reply</sup> it was found that they both had educational qualifications which were necessary for their being placed in the first category of the rule. In view of this, we see no merit in the application, it is dismissed. No order as to costs.
