ORAL JUDGEMENT

Dated: 11.8.94

¶ Per Shri B.S. Hegde, Member (J) ¶

Pursuant to the directions of the Tribunal the applicants have filed M.P. stating that out of 83 applicants 26 applicants have ~~been~~ passed the examination held on 25.8.91 and they are now regularised. Balance 46 applicants in annexure B were not allowed to appear for the examination held on 25.8.91 on either of the grounds as shown in the M.P. In the circumstances, the applicants have prayed that the services may be regularised subject to the conditions laid down in OA 79/87 and 269/87 by order dated 12.2.92 wherein the Tribunal has stated that the results of the examination which has already taken place be declared and those who have passed in the examination may be regularised.

~~Those~~ Those who have failed in the examination ~~may~~ may be given yet another opportunity to appear for the examination and so long as they are not given another chance their services will not be terminated. With these observations the OAs were disposed of. He further draws our attention to Annexure 'C' stating that out of 10 applicants 7 applicants failed in the examination; they were to be given one more chance to appear for the examination, till then their services may not be terminated. So far as the other three applicants are concerned they have not filled up the examination form. They may be given two opportunities to appear for the examination as was given to others. Age relaxation is to be given but other conditions are to be fulfilled. Appointments are to be made subject to vacancies.

In the light of the above the OA is disposed of.
