ORAL JUDGMENT:
(Per M.Y .Priolkar, Member(A))

Date: 28-4-1992

This application has been filed challenging the non implementation of the order dtd. 10-6-1991 in which the pay of the applicant was fixed at a higher level by stepping up on par with the juniors. According to the applicant, it is admitted, that this higher pay was given only for one month and thereafter the applicant is being paid the lower salary as earlier, allegedly on account of some objections taken by the Accounts department. It is not in dispute that the ~~xxx~~ order dtd. 10-6-1991 stepping up the pay ~~into~~ to the level of juniors have^s been issued by the competent authority. In case there was any infirmity in the order or because of any reason the pay had to be reduced, the order needs to have been formally amended after issuing a show cause notice to the applicant. This has not been done and therefore we have to hold that the action of the respondents in paying the lower salary inspite of currency of a valid order cannot be sustained.

6

2. The application is therefore allowed and the respondents are directed to pay the applicant according to the order issued on 10-6-1991 until this order is amended ^{after} ~~by~~ giving a showcause notice. Needless to say if the applicant is aggrieved by the final decision, if so taken, he will be at liberty to approach us again in accordance with law. No order as to costs.

TRIBUNAL'S ORDER:

Date: 10-6-1993

Heard counsels. It appears that after the order was passed in the O.A. a notice was sent by the respondents to the applicant for modifying

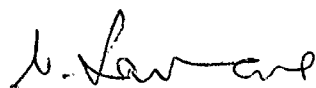

(11)

the earlier order by virtue of the leave that was granted to the respondents to do so. But the order has not yet been modified. We would ~~xx~~ direct that any modification of the order if the respondents wants to make should be completed within three months from today.

2. Since the applicant has retired in the month of October, 1992 his pensionary benefits shall also be modified on the basis of the order that would be passed pursuant to the leave granted.

3. Liberty has already been granted to the applicant to move, if necessary, by fresh O.A. should he feel aggrieved by the subsequent order. In view of the above direction no further order is necessary.

4. C.P. is disposed of.
