ORAL JUDGEMENT

Dated: 6.8.92

() Per Shri S.K. Dhaon, Vice Chairman()

During the pendency of the application the applicant has taken a voluntary retirement from service. The reliefs claimed in the application are that certain directions issued to the applicant while she was in service may be quashed.

We are of the opinion that this application has become infructuous on the ground that the applicant has retired from service. Accordingly it is dismissed without any order as to costs.
