ORAL JUDGEMENT

Dated: 28.9.93

{ Per Shri N.K. Verma, Member (A) }

Heard learned counsel for both the sides.
The applicant Shri V.D. Karkare is a cashier who alleges that he has been subjected to discrimination in as much as he was put on cheque table which would not entitle him to payment of Honorarium. He has prayed for directing the respondents to rotate him forthwith and also to pay him the compensation at the rate of Rs. 12,000/- per annum for the years that he was not rotated.

2. The learned counsel for the respondents have come out with a reply saying that as per para 19 of the written statement they have no objection for rotation of the applicant, but he has to work on that table without raising any objections and conditions. During the arguments the learned counsel for the applicant indicated certain administrative difficulties in carrying out the responsibilities of a cashier for outlaying stations where cash is to be carried from banks in person. These are administrative matters, which, the Railway authorities will surely look into.

3. Since the Railway (respondents) have already agreed to give the applicant the relief sought in prayer (a) in so far as the rotation is concerned, the same is disposed of accordingly. The prayer (b) for grant of compensation at the rate of Rs. 12,000/- for the years he was not rotated, is on the face of it ~~is~~ irrelevant and not acceptable. This part of the prayer is therefore, rejected. There will be no order as to costs.

54) 26.04.1996.

Heard Shri C.M. Jha for the applicant and Shri A.L. Kasture for the respondents.

The only direction given in the judgement ~~is~~ was that - since the respondents have already agreed to give the applicant the relief sought in prayer (a) insofar as the rotation is concerned, the same is disposed of accordingly. Regarding claim for grant of compensation for the years he was not rotated, the same was rejected. The respondents in their reply have clearly stated that the applicant himself did not comply with the said orders of rotation and has himself expressed that he should not be disturbed further and he has not given his charge despite reminders.

In the circumstances, we do not find any justification in allowing the C.P. to continue and accordingly the C.P. No. 85/95 is discharged.
