We have heard the learned counsel for the applicant and the learned Standing Counsel appearing for the respondents.

2. The applicant is a casual labourer working for the department of Telecommunications and he has prayed for grant of temporary status and regularisation. A few departmental circulars in regard to grant of temporary status and regularisation have been brought to our notice. We have perused some of the orders issued by the Department of Telecommunications, such as the one which was issued on 30.3.1985 regarding non-engagement of casual labourers after 30.3.1985, the memo dated 18.9.1988 regarding regularisation of casual labourers, the Casual Labourers (Grant of temporary status and regularisation) Scheme accompanying a letter dated 7th November, 1988 from the Department of Telecom addressed to all CGM, Telecommunication Circles etc., in which instructions exist relating to grant of temporary status to casual labourers engaged on or before 30.3.1985, Circular dated 25.6.1993 and the circular letter dated 17.12.1993 from ADG(STN), Department of Telecommunications providing for grant of temporary status etc., to casual labourers engaged in circles from 31st March, 1985 to 22nd June, 1988 who are still continuing to work in the circles where they were initially engaged and who are not absent for the last more than 365 days counting back from the date of issue of the aforesaid order, i.e., 17.12.1993.

2. Learned counsel for the applicant prays that the applicant should be considered for grant of temporary status in terms of the circular order dated 17.12.1993. Learned Standing Counsel does not have any objection to consideration of the case of the applicant in terms of provisions contained in the aforesaid circular order for suitable action. If he is found eligible he would be granted temporary status.

3. In view of the position^{as}/stated above, we direct the respondents to consider the case of the applicant for grant of temporary status in the light of the provisions contained in the circular letter dated 17.12.1993.
