This application, having come up before this Tribunal today for hearing, Hon'ble Shri S.
Gurusankaran, Member (A), made the following :

ORDER

In this application, the applicant is aggrieved by non release of his gratuity and commuted value of pension after his superannuation with effect from 31.8.1990 and ~~he has~~ prayed for quashing of the reply dated 24.11.1992 (Annexure-A2) and directing the respondents to release the gratuity and commuted value of pension. On the filing of the application Shri M.S. Padmarajaiah, the learned senior standing Central Govt. Counsel took notice on our direction and the respondents have yet to file reply.

2. Today, when the matter came up for hearing, Shri M.S. Padmarajaiah brought to our notice that the Disciplinary Proceedings referred in Annexure-A2 have now been concluded and the applicant has been imposed with the punishment of withholding of 20% of the monthly pension for a period of 5 years, but, released the gratuity admissible to him. Dr. M.S. Nagaraja also submits that in view of the fact that the Disciplinary proceedings have concluded and orders have been issued for releasing the pensionary benefits with the imposition of the punishment referred to, this application has become infructuous and he may be allowed to withdraw the same with permission to approach the appropriate forum for challenging the punishment imposed on him on the conclusion of the disciplinary proceedings.

3. Having heard the submissions of both the parties, we find that this application is mainly for quashing the order dated 24.11.1992 and directing the respondents to release the gratuity and commuted value of pension, Since the disciplinary proceedings are already been concluded and punishment has been imposed on him, This application has become infructuous.

4. In view of this, we allow the applicant to withdraw this application as having become infructuous reserving liberty to approach the appropriate forum to challenge the punishment imposed on him, if so desired.
