ORDER

Mr. Justice P.K. Shyamsundar, Vice-Chairman:-

When the case was called Shri A.N. Venugopal, learned counsel for the respondents mentioned that he has been able to persuade the department to pay overtime allowance of Rs.1956/- as against Rs.2,000/- and odd claimed by the applicant which in fact is the exact grievance in this application. The learned counsel for the applicant tells us that in the light of the aforesaid developments he has nothing else to submit. In the circumstances we think the applicant's claim having been appropriately settled we therefore find it unnecessary to pursue this matter any further. However we direct the respondents to pay up the money agreed to be paid herein, to the applicant within two weeks' from to-day.

-2-

In the result, we dispose of this application as having become infructuous.
