ORDER

Mr. Justice P.K. Shyamsundar, Vice-Chairman:-

After having heard Dr. M.S. Nagaraja, learned counsel for the petitioner and Shri M.S. Padmarajaiah, learned Standing Counsel for the respondents, we see no point in pursuing this petition further. The direction given by the Tribunal to recover some leave salary due to the petitioner from the Rajasthan Government and to make available the same to the petitioner has since been complied with although not strictly in accordance with the order. Instead of recovering the leave salary from the said Government and paying it to the petitioner, the Rajasthan Government appears to have directly settled the leave salary due to the petitioner by giving him a cheque. In view of this all that he should have done was to deposit the said leave salary received by him from Rajasthan Government with the I.C.A.R. and then made a demand on that organisation for payment of leave salary that was due to him. The present application for contempt is, therefore, clearly misconceived and we find no merit in the same. We accordingly drop these proceedings. Even now the petitioner can deposit the leave salary amount received by him from the Rajasthan Government and make a further claim with I.C.A.R. If that claim is found to be valid even to it and is not settled, he can start appropriate proceedings.
