ORDER

Mr. Justice P.K. Shyamsundar, Vice-Chairman:-

We are now told that without our intervention, the applicant has secured appropriate reliefs sought for herein. What he wanted was immediate selection to the Indian Police Service cadre and we are told now that the same has been done. The learned Government Advocate placed on record a Notification of the Government of India under which the applicant was appointed to the Indian Police Service on 27-12-1993. We place on record the aforesaid notification and based on the same dispose off this application in turn as having become infructuous.

No costs.
