O R D E R

Shri Justice P.K. Shyamsundar, Vice-Chairman:

1. After having heard both sides at the stage of admission we find as the reliefs sought for by the applicant herein except in regard to one aspect has since been granted. The applicant who is now retired has been denied a small amount of pensionary benefits and a little amount of gratuity that was payable to him on retirement. We are told that those payments were withheld because on the eve of his retirement there was an inquiry pending which went on even after his retirement and had finally culminated in some kind of punishment. The applicant has now taken recourse to his remedy under law and has challenged the punishment meted out to him in the disciplinary inquiry resulting in reduction in pensionary benefits. Those proceedings are said to have been challenged in O.A. No.11/94 which is also set down for hearing today. It seems to us that barring the prayer for payment of interest in the matter of alleged belated payment of pensionary benefits which is characterised as unreasonable, rest of the pensionary benefits having been granted. We, therefore, think this matter does not survive as the residual grievance regarding interest due and claimed can as well be urged in the other case O.A. No.11/94 which is not yet ripe for hearing. We, therefore, dismiss this application as having become infructuous leaving open the question of payment of interest on the pensionary benefits and hold that the same can be agitated in O.A.No.11/94.
