O R D E R

Shri Justice P.K. Shyamsundar, Vice-Chairman:

1. We have heard both sides in these batch of R.A.s sponsored on behalf of the Employees State Insurance Corporation, being the respondents in O.A. No.743/91, 130/92, 223 to 230/92 and 352/92 disposed off by us on 26.2.1993. By that order we allowed all the aforesaid applications basing ourselves on an earlier decision rendered by us in O.A. No.350/91 decided on 3.10.1991 which do and admittedly covered the controversy raised in the applications supra and in terms thereof gave certain directions to the advantage of the applicants in these applications apart from setting a deadline to comply with our directions. In para 2 of the order we stated--

"2. Shri Papanna submits that the order in O.A. No.350/90 is pending in the Supreme Court but we should state that so long as the Supreme Court has not stayed or set aside the order of this Tribunal the order of this Tribunal is in force and is liable to be followed. ..."

From the above it becomes clear that upon being advised that our judgment in O.A. No.350/90 was appealed before the Supreme Court and was pending but that there was no stay as on the date of our order and that, therefore, the judgment in O.A. No.350/90 still prevailed having not been set aside and in effect and in law we had to follow our own order made in O.A. No.350/90. It is on that basis we passed the order now impugned in these RAs. We are now told and it is not disputed that long prior to our order disposing of the O.A. stated supra, the Supreme Court had by an order dated 29.7.1992, copy produced herein at Annexure B, had issued notice on the SLP arising from O.A. No.350/90 and ing on their merits. Let this matter be called on 1.3.1994.

on 26.2.1993 and direct the said cases be posted for de novo hearing on 26.2.1993 while disposing off the O.A. No. 743/91 and other connected cases in the circumstances we think it proper to recall our order made in operation of which had already been stayed by the Apex Court. Under bly base ourselves on the decision in O.A. No. 350/90, the operation of O.A. 743/91 and connected cases and, therefore, we could not possibly the Supreme Court on the date of the order made in O.A. transpires that our judgment in O.A. No. 350/90 had been stayed off the O.A.s. referred supra. On such admitted position it now the stay order was in operation on 26.2.1993 when we disposed of 29.7.1992, that stay order continues even today and apparently in O.A. No. 350/90 having been stayed by the Apex Court on therefore, the position now is that operation of our order made itself has not yet been placed before court for final disposal. have since entered appearance but the Special Leave Petition Court viz., the applicants in O.A. No. 350/90 and connected cases appearance. We are told that the respondents before the Supreme the Court for final orders after the respondents put in their order with a further direction that the matter be posted before in that case and directed continuation of stay of the impugned 22.1.1993 vide Annexure C, the Apex Court granted special leave in the said petition. Subsequently by a further order made on had in the meanwhile also stayed the operation of the judgment
