O R D E R

(Mr. Justice P.K. Shyamsundar, Vice Chairman)

Heard Shri M.S. Anandaramu, counsel for the applicant and Shri A.N. Venugopal, Standing Counsel for the Railways. The controversy herein is all about refusal of employment to the applicant by the Railway authorities. We are now told by Shri Anandaramu that he will advise his client to approach the Industrial Tribunal, which remedy is open to him. If the applicant is aggrieved with the result of the industrial dispute, it would then be open to him to approach this Tribunal. This application stands disposed off as aforesaid. We make it clear that we have not pronounced on the merits of this application.
