ORDER

Shri Justice P.K. Shyamsundar, Vice Chairman:

Having heard both sides, we propose to dispose off this application at the admission stage itself.

2. This application, in which the 4 people have joined in to assail an order transferring them from one Telephone Exchange to another Telephone Exchange in Bangalore itself contending, interalia, that in the guise of a transfer order they have been brought down to a lower level putting them into the humiliating position of being required to work under their own juniors, etc., etc.

3. One of our learned members issued an order of Interim stay. Along with, the applicants have also submitted representations alleging unjust transfer and those representations are said to have remained undisposed. Under the circumstances, we think it appropriate to direct the department to dispose off the applicants' representations said to have been made on 7.6.1994 within two months from the date of this order. In the meanwhile, the applicants will do well to join the new place of posting and work in whatever capacity they are asked to do. In case, their representations do not bear the anticipated fruit, they are welcome to come back to the Tribunal and take up the issue once again before us. To facilitate the same, we leave open all the contentions raised in this application and direct the department to dispose of these representations as objectively as possible. The Interim stay granted is vacated.

4. This application is disposed off finally as aforesaid.
No costs.
