ORDER

MR. JUSTICE P.K. SHYAMSUNDAR, VICE CHAIRMAN

Heard both sides, and We find that the applicant, who is a very straightforward and honest officer, admitted having lost Rs.10,000/- worth Indira Vikas Patras from his custody while working as Sub Post Master, Bijapur, Kutchery Post Office. Upon the short-fall being noticed, he even paid up the face value of the lost certificates. Later, at a departmental enquiry, the Department let him off with a mere 'Censure'

The applicant has accepted that 'Censure' also and has not made an issue of it in any way but back what he wants is that in case the Indira Vikas Patras lost from his custody are by some chance recovered or traced, then the Department should reimburse him the value of Indira Vikas Patras since he has already paid the same. We agree that this is a fair proposition and there is no difficulty for acceding to the applicant's request. We direct that in case the missing Indira Vikas Patras are found, the Department will refund the amount which the applicant has paid immediately after the loss was discovered. Accordingly, we dispose of this application directing the Department to re-imburse a sum of Rs.10,000/- to the applicant if and when the lost Indira Vikas Patras are traced. No order as to costs.
