ORDER

Shri Justice P.K. Shyamsundar, Vice Chairman

Heard M/s V. Javahar Babu/ Ananda Ramu for the applicants and the learned Standing Counsel. M/s Javahar Babu/ Ananda Ramu combat the order transferring their clients from Military Farm,

Hebbal, Bangalore. It is strenuously urged that the applicants being the Farm Hands had been maliciously picked up for unjust shift from their native soil which has resulted in extreme hardship not merely to them but also to their families. It is pointed out because the applicants were the office bearers/ members of a union of Farm Hands constituted under law, the administration taking exception to this kind of congregation had sought to paralyse the applicants and their colleagues in the other cases which are also presently dealt with.

2. We have perused the file and found that all transfer orders have been made in public interest. The argument is that the applicants are singled out in migration to an outside territory and that the orders suffer from malafide but we see no such thing. We are satisfied with the order and is not vitiated by malafide or any other intention. Under the circumstances, these applications therefore fail. The applicants should join their new places of work and after completing one year's tenure in the new places of posting, the applicants may if so advised make representations to the department for their retransfer to Bangalore. If that is done and if in view of the appropriate authority finding that the applicants' prayer for a transfer back to Bangalore is justified, the authority may consider such representation in as sympathetic light as possible and with all things being equal may make order retransferring the applicants to Bangalore. In the meanwhile, the applicants will be entitled to retain the official quarters at Bangalore for a period of two months from today. With this direction, these applications which otherwise fail shall stand dismissed. No costs.
