ORDER

Shri T.V. Ramanar, Member (A):

Case called twice, applicant and his counsel absent.

We have considered the application which is posted today for admission. We find no good reason to admit the same because ^{by} his own admission, the applicant started working as a casual mazdoor on muster roll from 1.12.1989 ^{which also} as is evident from Annexure-A2. The guidelines of Department of Telecommunication, New Delhi, contained in the letter dated 17.12.1993 says that only those casual mazdoors engaged between 31.3.1985 and 22.6.1988 and who continued to function as such could be considered for grant of temporary status. Since, by his own admission, the applicant started working as casual mazdoor only from 1.12.1989, he does not seem to be eligible for grant of temporary status. That is what exactly has been stated by respondent No.2 in his reply dated 16.11.1994 in respect the direction given by this Bench of the Tribunal in O.A.

No.983/1993 decided on 29.7.1994. Hence, we see no substance in this application which is hereby dismissed. No costs.
