ORDER

Shri Justice P.K. Shyamsundar, Vice Chairman:

We have heard both sides. The question for consideration herein is whether all these applicants numbering 110 are entitled to same benefits as was granted by this Tribunal in O.A. No.156/1992, disposed of on 6.3.1993.

...9..

(89)

2. It is urged by both sides that the position is similar to what was dealt with in the aforesaid O.A. and therefore it becomes apparent that we have to simply act in terms of what was done in the aforesaid O.A. Following the said O.A., we now pass the following order.

3. Respondents are directed to count the period of training undergone by the applicants as duty for the purpose of granting increments notionally and to extend the actual benefit of increment from 1.10.1990 onwards. The financial benefits flowing therefrom shall be extended and be made available to the applicants within three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

4. We take this opportunity of directing the department to make similar order in all such cases which are to be regulated in terms of this order. It is unnecessary for everybody to come to the Court for relief. In fact, it is observed by the Supreme Court in the case of Inder Pal Yadav Vs. Union of India, reported in 1985 SCC(L&S) 526, that the rights of the parties are to be regulated in accordance with the rights so settled. We do hope, this will be the last set of litigation in which we are asked to adjudicate.

(By Addl. Central Govt. Standing)
Counsel Shri M.V. Rao

ORDER

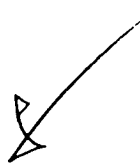

MR. JUSTICE P.K. SHYAMSUNDAR, VICE CHAIRMAN

Heard Shri K.V. Surayanarayanaiah, learned counsel for the applicant and Shri M.V.

Rao, learned Standing Counsel who took serious objection to the tenability of the contempt petition pointing out that the applicant who is now working in Madras cannot file a contempt petition before this Bench and complain of non-implementation of a judgment of this Tribunal in O.A.Nos.106 & 360 to 468/1995 dated 16.1.1995.

The controversy herein is that the period spent by the applicant on training be reckoned as spent on duty and following such reckoning, the financial benefits flowing therefrom should be made available to the applicant. We are told that the foregoing is the purport of the earlier decision of the Tribunal and in the case of Elias Ahmed & Ors v. Union of India & Ors (O.A.Nos.451 & 548/91 dated 29.12.92) the Full Bench of this Tribunal said that the Department should take care to ensure that all persons are treated alike in that all the employees of the Department similarly situated should be dealt with in like fashion and all the benefits flowing therefrom should be made available to everyone who need not be driven to initiate separate proceedings and that instead of filing O.A., the suffering employees may initiate contempt proceedings. Accordingly, the applicant herein has initiated this contempt proceeding and asked us to take action for not treating the period spent by her on training as period spent on duty which appears to be the settled position in law. The learned Standing Counsel says that it could be done provided the applicant makes an application at Madras where the applicant is now working. Besides, it is said that the C.G.M. Quality Assurance who is authorised to look into these complaints should have been made a party and that applicant could have made a representation to that authority in which event in all probability she could have had her grievance redressed. We are not inclined to take any serious note of the submissions made by the learned Standing Counsel. The applicant is said to be presently working in Madras on deputation but is still borne on the cadre of GM Telecom District, Bangalore, Karnataka. If that be the position, she can certainly make an application before us. She can also without any exception make an application before the Madras Bench but that does not take away our jurisdiction in the matter. It cannot be said that we do not have any control over the subject matter in this controversy.

2. Be that as it may, we do not wish to go into all these needless buffeting about an employee who claims parity in the matter of treatment of reckoning her service spent on training as spent on duty. Whether it is here or in Madras, the outcome would be that she would be entitled to all the benefits. We do not propose to initiate proceedings for contempt as sought for by the applicant; instead we direct CGM, Karnataka Circle, Bangalore, to look into the grievance of the applicant and remedy it in accordance with law. We direct the CGM to take necessary action within three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. The CGM will take notice of the decision of the Tribunal in D.As. referred to above and act according to the directions therein. With these observations, this contempt petition stands disposed of with no order as to costs.
