(By Standing Counsel Shri M.S. Padmarajaiah)

O R D E R

Mr. Justice P.K. Shyamsundar, Vice-Chairman:-

We have heard Mr. K. Srinivasa Gowda, learned counsel for the applicants and Shri M.S. Padmarajaiah, learned Senior Central Government Standing Counsel who opposes these applications with great vehemence. In all these applications, the applicants who were at one time appointed on ad hoc terms made tenable for a period of 6 months' duration under the respective appointment orders, now want appropriate directions being given to the department itself stating that all of them should be considered for permanent absorption in Group-D cadre having regard to the services rendered by them in the past and regard also being had to the fact that all of them had been sponsored through the appropriate employment exchange, thereafter interviewed and satisfaction recorded by the employer touching their suitability on all aspects.

2. Per contra, it is contended for the department by the learned Standing Counsel that the applicants themselves had not acquired any particular right to demand that they be absorbed and given permanent employment in Group-D post, by virtue of the temporary service rendered on earlier occasion, after having been recruited through the employment exchange. He relied strongly on the offer of appointment made by the department, a copy of which is produced along with the objections statement in which it is made clear that any one who accepts the job in terms of the offer made should consider himself not being eligible for absorption against any regular vacancy and his appointment under the said order would not lead to or give rise any expectation of permanent employment with the department. In those circumstances, he asks us to reject these applications in limine taking into consideration the fact that the applicants had no right at all, either vested or otherwise, to demand that all future vacancies in the Group-D post, should by right be given to them. Undoubtedly, there is force in this submission of the learned Standing Counsel. Even so, we also notice that Sri Srinivasa Gowda, appearing for the applicants does not also put his case on the grounds of entitlement as a matter of law. What counsel asks us to say is that having regard to the fact that the applicants had been in and out of these jobs from June, 1994 to December, 1994 and on an earlier occasion this Court had made an order in favour of similarly situated persons directing absorption in Group-D posts and when vacancies arise, we may taking into consideration the human aspect instead make similar orders in these cases also.

3. We are free to take notice of the appeal made to us based on the plight suffered by the applicants, but nonetheless we must observe that they do not have any semblance of a right for appointment on a permanent footing in group-D posts which have necessarily to be filled up regularly in accordance with the Recruitment Rules. We cannot commend the department to afford employment opportunity to the applicants in total negation of the Recruitment Rules. But, even then we consider that it is just and proper for the department to consider the case of the applicants for appointment in any Group-D post other than on the make shift basis under which they are presently being catered to. We feel it is just and proper for us to make an order directing the first respondent to consider the case of the applicants along with others if any, for fitment in any Group-D post that may arise in the course of one year from the date of this order. While entitlement for such consideration is limited to the period aforesaid in the case of the applicants, we make it clear that it would not be necessary for de novo sponsoring of their names by the Employment Exchange and their cases should be considered without insisting on fresh sponsorship by any Employment Exchange. With these observations and directions these applications stand finally disposed of. No costs.
