ORDER (ORAL)

¶ Per Shri P.P. Srivastava, Member (A) ¶

Heard counsel for the parties.

2. Both the O.As have the same question of law involved and therefore are being disposed of by a common order.

...2...¹

3. The learned counsel for the applicant ^{has} ~~is~~ confined only to relief 8(d) which reads as under:

" Alternatively the applicant be allowed to take up the special exam. for absorption as Postman as soon as Exam. is announced to regularise casual labourers. and consequential benefits arising out of this."

Similar issue has already been decided by this Tribunal following the Full Bench decision in the case of G. Manjunath and others V/s. The Post Master General Bangalore and others reported in Full Bench Vol II 1989 - 1991 page 457 A.No. 1155 to 1168 of 1989 decided on 19.4.91. The applicants are entitled to appear for the examination to ^{the post to which they belong} which they belong in terms of Administrative instructions dated 16.7.90 which are placed at Exhibit F . The Full Bench judgement permits ^{that} the employees like the applicants can avail two chances for appearing in the competitive examination as and when it is held.

4. In view of this clear cut rule of the Full Bench and also the decision in OA 949/94 and O.A. 957/94 decided on 27.3.97, I dispose of these O.As with a direction that the applicant should be permitted two chances for appearing in the examination for the post of Postman as and when the examination is conducted. The applicants would be continued to be given work as per the requirements of the Department. Accordingly the O.As are disposed of.
