Shri A.Y. Pathak, Counsel
for the applicant.

ORAL JUDGMENT :

Dated : 5.11.1993.

§ Per : Hon'ble Shri N.K. Verma, Member (Admn)§

Shri Pathak, Counsel for the applicant requested for relief and quashing and setting aside the order dtd. 31.12.1991, 23.7.1992 and 29.10.1993 under which the applicant has been transferred to Delhi. He has also requested an interim relief of directing to stay the effect, operation and execution of these orders during the pendency of this application, or retaining the applicant at Nagpur till the final disposal of this application. Shri Pathak also stated that the orders emphasised the malafide on the part of Respondent No.4, The Superintendent Engineer who issued the impugned order dtd.29.10.1993 under which the applicant has been ordered to be relieved of his duties with effect from 29.10.1993 AN in pursuance of the order dtd. 31.12.1991. The applicant has not yet been relieved of his charge. <sup>yet</sup> The applicant has to exhaust the remedies available under <sup>Supplemental</sup> the Rules <sup>before</sup> he is entitled ~~before~~ <sup>for</sup> approaching this Tribunal for seeking redressal of his grievance. The malafide also have <sup>not</sup> been substantiated in any manner so as to direct immediate relief by way of interim order in this matter. The application is therefore dismissed with a liberty to approach the Tribunal at a later stage. No order as to costs.
