ORAL JUDGEMENT

Dated: 19.10.1993

(PER: M.S.Deshpande, Vice Chairman)

Having heard the learned counsel at some length, I find that since the applicant is not willing to go on promotion to New Delhi where he has been posted and since there was a stay against the order of promotion/transfer, the order of promotion was cancelled and the applicant was given a posting in the original post at Bombay. Now prayer (a) would not survive. The consequence of that the applicant was not accepting the promotion and was debarred from it for one year and that there was no quarrel about this rule position.

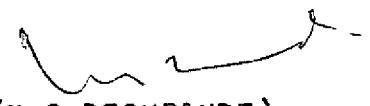

2. The anxiety of the applicant is that even if he would be considered for promotion after a period of one year for which he was debarred, he may not be given promotion and posting at Bombay and therefore give a suitable direction to the respondents. I do not think that such a direction is permissible. The department should consider the applicant's request in the conditions which would then be prevailing.

3* With these observations the application is disposed of.
