ORAL JUDGMENT:

DATED: 15.4.1993

(Per: M S Deshpande, Vice Chairman)

Heard the counsel. Mr P M A Nair take notice on behalf of respondents.

The only question which is required to be considered is whether the hearing which had been given to the applicant in terms of the orders passed earlier by this Tribunal on 13.11.1992 was adequate. Obviously, the order contemplated an inquiry by the General Manager though it is not said so in so many terms. It is only that authority, which could have cancelled the panel, ^{- would have} to give effective hearing.

We, therefore, direct the General Manager, to give a hearing to the applicants within two months and decide the matter by reasoned order. Till then the applicants would not be reverted. The interim order to operate ^{until} for a week after the decision of the General Manager is communicated to the applicants.

O.A. is disposed of in these terms.

'DASTI' granted.
